

Welcome to Anumati • Start your secure 5-step consent registration flow below

Take Control of Your Financial Data

Anumati lets you decide who can access your financial information, for how long, and for what purpose. Built on India's secure Account Aggregator framework.

You Decide

Complete control over who sees your bank balances, mutual funds, or tax data. No one sees your data without your green light.

Stay Informed

Real-time logs of every document shared. Receive instant push and SMS notifications the second a financial partner requests info.

Revoke Anytime

Withdrawing consent is as simple as a single tap. Stop banks or lenders from tracking your transactions permanently.
